Car Hire :

Both Avis and Hertz have depots throughout the UK although it is best to specify your departure base as your drop off point, rather than their depot. Both companies offer this service however they may charge a premium. At the end of your holiday you can have a car dropped off for your onward travel. Please note that some of the car companies agents are not aware that they offer this service so you may need to insist. Specify this requirement when booking the car as it is difficult to change after the car has been booked.
